(4) Where, in order to effect the transfer of any property, instrument or share, any document or endorsement is required to be executed or made by a person whose right, title or interest, is transferred, the Central Government or any authority or person authorized by it in this behalf, may execute such document or make such endorsement, and any document so executed and endorsement so made shall be deemed to have been executed and made by the person whose right, title or interest is so transferred, and shall be conclusive proof of such transfer for all purposes.

(5) In this section, and in section 11-A, the expression "expenses of the sale" shall include expenditure incurred in connection with any dispute arising out of the sale, and such other expenditure as the Central Government may determine to be such expenses.

(6) The provisions of this section and sections 11-A and 11-B shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law other than this Act, or in any instrument, deed or document.

(7) For the removal of doubt it is hereby declared that where a person appointed under sub-section (1) of section 11-A is required to exercise the powers or perform the duties of the Board of Directors of a company, the provisions of the Companies Act, 1913 (VII of 1913), shall, as respects duties not expressly set forth in the order under sub-section (1) of section 11-A, not apply to him."

\text{average count} = \frac{\text{count of warp} \times \text{number of ends per inch in the reed} + \text{count of weft} \times \text{number of picks per inch}}{\text{number of ends per inch in the reed} + \text{number of picks per inch}}

(3) The auditors shall report to the shareholders upon the annual balance sheet and accounts, and in their report they shall state whether in their opinion the balance sheet is a full and fair balance sheet containing all necessary particulars and properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the affairs of the Bank, and in case they have called for any explanation or information from the Board, whether it has been given and whether it is satisfactory.

(4) The Central Government may, at any time issue directions to the auditors requiring them to report to it upon the adequacy of measures taken by the Bank for the protection of its shareholders and creditors or upon the sufficiency of their procedure in auditing the affairs of the Bank, and may, at any time, enlarge or extend the scope of the audit or direct auditors requiring them to report to it upon the adequacy of measures taken by the auditors if in its opinion the public interest so requires.

(5) The Bank shall furnish to each shareholder at least fifteen days before the date of the general meeting a copy of the audited balance sheet together with a copy of profit and loss account for the year and a report on the working of the Bank during the year and shall also cause the said balance sheet and profit and loss account to be published in the official Gazette and such daily newspapers as the Board may decide.

36. Government Auditors.—Without prejudice to anything contained in section 35, the Central Government may appoint such auditors as it thinks fit to examine and report on the accounts of the Bank.

37. Return.—(1) The Bank shall furnish to all shareholders, and may cause to be published in the official Gazette and in such daily newspapers as the Board may decide, within ten days of the date to which the statement relates, a statement in the prescribed form of its assets and liabilities as they stand at the close of business on the last Friday of each month, or, if that day is a public holiday under the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 (XXVI of 1881), as they stand as at the close of business on the preceding working day.

(2) The Bank shall furnish in the prescribed form to the Central Government at least once a year, or as frequently as the Central Government may require, a classification of its loans and investments, and all loans guaranteed by it and underwriting agreements entered into by it.

(3) The Bank shall furnish to the Central Government within three months of the close of the financial year an audited statement in the prescribed form of its assets and liabilities as they stand at the close of that year together with a profit and loss account for the year and a report on the working of the Bank during the year, and shall also publish the said statement, account and report in the official Gazette.

38. Power to call for payment before agreed period.—Notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, the Bank may, by notice, require any industrial concern to which it has granted any loan forthwith to repay the loan in full, if—

(a) it appears to the Board that information false or misleading in any material particular has been given in the application for the loan; or
(b) the concern has failed to comply with the terms of any agreement with the Bank in the matter of the loan; or
(c) there is a reasonable apprehension that the concern is unable to pay its debts or may go into liquidation; or
(d) the property pledged, mortgaged, hypothecated or assigned to the Bank as security for the loan, is not insured or kept insured by the concern to the satisfaction of the Bank or has, in opinion of the Board, depreciated in value by more than twenty per cent. and further security to the satisfaction of the Board is not given; or
(e) without the permission of the Board, machinery or other equipment is removed from the premises of the concern without being replaced; or
(f) for any other reason, it is necessary, in the opinion of the Board, to protect the interest of the Bank.

39. Special provisions for enforcement of claims by the Bank.—(1) Where by reason of the breach of any condition of any agreement between the Bank and an industrial concern, the Bank becomes entitled to require the immediate payment of any loan before the due date, or where an industrial concern fails to repay such loan by the due date or in compliance with the notice under section 38, an officer of the Bank, generally or specially authorized by the Board in his behalf, may apply to the District Judge within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the concern carries on the whole or a substantial part of its business, for one or more of the following reliefs, namely:—

(a) an order for the sale of the property pledged, mortgaged, hypothecated or assigned to the Bank as security for the loan, or
(b) transfer of the management of the concern to the Bank, or

(2) An application under sub-section (1) shall state the nature and extent of the liability of the concern to the Bank, the ground on which it is made and such other particulars as may be prescribed by rules.

(3) When the application is for the relief mentioned in clause (a) or clause (c) of sub-section (1), the District Judge shall pass an order ad interim attaching the property referred to in clause (a) as aforesaid or such other property of the concern as is likely in his estimation to fetch, on being sold, an amount equivalent to the outstanding liability of the concern to the Bank together with the costs of the proceedings taken under this section, with or without an injunction ad interim restraining the concern from transferring or removing any machinery or equipment without the consent of the Bank.

(4) Where the application is for the relief mentioned in clause (b) of sub-section (1), the District Judge shall grant an injunction ad interim restraining the concern from transferring or removing its machinery or equipment and shall issue a notice calling upon the concern to show cause on a date to be specified in the notice why the management of the concern should not be transferred to the Bank.

(5) Before passing any order under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4), the District Judge may, if he thinks fit, examine the person making the application.

(6) At the time of passing an order under sub-section (3), the District Judge shall issue to the concern a notice accompanied by a copy of the order, the application and evidence, if any, recorded by him and calling upon it to show cause on a date to be specified in the notice why the order of attachment ad interim should not be made absolute or the injunction be not confirmed.

(7) If no cause is shown on or before the date specified in the notice under sub-section (4) or sub-section (6), the District Judge shall forthwith make the order ad interim absolute and direct the sale of the attached property or transfer the management of the concern to the Bank or confirm the injunction.

(8) If cause is shown the District Judge shall proceed to investigate the claim of the Bank and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908), shall as far as practicable, apply to such proceedings.

(9) On completing an investigation under sub-section (8) the District Judge shall pass an order—

(a) confirming the order of attachment or directing the sale of the attached property, or
(b) varying the order of attachment so as to release a portion of the property from attachment and directing the sale of the remainder of the attached property, or
(c) releasing the property from attachment, if he is satisfied that it is not necessary in the interests of the Bank to retain it under attachment, or
(d) confirming or vacating the injunction, or
(e) transferring or refusing to transfer the management of the concern to the Bank:
Provided that when making any order under clause (c), the District Judge may make such further orders as he thinks necessary to protect the interests of the Bank and may apportion the cost of the proceedings in such manner as he thinks fit:

Provided further that unless the Bank intimates to the District Judge that it will not appeal against any order releasing any property from attachment such order shall not be executed until the expiry of the period mentioned in sub-section (11), or if an appeal is preferred, unless the High Court otherwise directs, until the appeal is disposed of.

(10) An order under this section for the attachment or sale of property shall be carried into effect as far as may be in the manner provided in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908), for the attachment or sale of property in execution of a decree as if the Bank were the decree-holder.

(11) Any party aggrieved by an order under sub-section (7) or sub-section (9) may, within thirty days from the date of the order, appeal to the High Court, and upon such appeal the High Court may, after hearing the parties, pass such orders as it thinks proper.

(12) Nothing in this section shall be construed, where proceedings for liquidation in respect of the industrial concern have commenced before an application is made under sub-section (1), as giving the Bank any preference over other creditors of the concern not conferred on it by any other law for the time being in force.

40. Rights of Bank in cases of default.—(1) Where any industrial concern which is under a liability to the Bank under an agreement makes any default in payment or otherwise fails to comply with the terms of its agreement with the Bank, the Bank may, notwithstanding anything contained in section 39, take over the management of the concern, and may sell or realise any property pledged, mortgaged, hypothecated or assigned by the concern to secure its liability to the Bank.

Provided further that in so giving notice the Bank shall inform the debtor that he may pay by such instalments as may be fixed in the notice and that upon his so paying every instalment on or before the due date.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply to a trial for an offence of desertion or fraudulent enrolment or for any of the offences relating to mutiny.

(3) In computing the period of time mentioned in sub-section (1), any time spent by such person as a prisoner of war, or in any enemy territory, or in evading arrest after the alleged commission of the offence, shall be excluded.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), no trial for an offence of desertion (other than desertion on active service) or of fraudulent enrolment shall be commenced, if the person concerned (not being an officer) has, subsequently to the alleged commission of the offence, served continuously in an exemplary manner for not less than three years with any portion of the armed forces.

106. Liability of offender who ceases to be subject to this Ordinance.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a person who has ceased to be subject to this Ordinance may be tried under this Ordinance for any offence committed while subject to this Ordinance and may for that purpose be arrested and kept in naval custody as if he had not ceased to be subject thereto.

(2) Save as provided in sub-section (3), no such person as aforesaid shall be tried for an offence, unless his trial commences within six months of his ceasing to be subject to this Ordinance.

(3) The provisions of sub-section (2) shall not apply to the trial of any such person as aforesaid for an offence of desertion or fraudulent enrolment or for any of the offences relating to mutiny.

(4) Nothing contained in sub-section (2) shall affect the jurisdiction of a criminal court to try any offence triable by such court.

(5) When a person subject to this Ordinance is sentenced by a naval tribunal to imprisonment, this Ordinance shall apply to him during the term of his sentence, though he is dismissed from the service or has otherwise ceased to be subject to this Ordinance, and he may be kept, removed, imprisoned and punished as if he has continued to be subject to the Ordinance.

(6) When a person subject to this Ordinance is sentenced by a naval tribunal to death, this Ordinance shall apply to him till the sentence is carried out.
107. Concurrent jurisdiction of naval tribunal and criminal court.—
(1) When a criminal court and naval tribunal both have jurisdiction in respect of a civil offence, it shall be in the discretion of the prescribed naval authority to decide whether the proceedings shall be instituted before the court or tribunal and if that authority decides that they shall be instituted before a naval tribunal, to direct that the accused person shall be detained in naval custody.

(2) Where it is decided to institute the proceedings before a naval tribunal under sub-section (1) but the criminal court is of the opinion that proceedings ought to be instituted before itself, it may by written notice require the prescribed naval authority to postpone the proceedings pending the determination of the matter by the Central Government, and thereupon the proceedings shall be so postponed.

(3) On receiving a notice under sub-section (2), the said authority shall, unless upon reconsideration it agrees that the proceedings shall be instituted before the criminal court, forthwith refer the matter to the Central Government whose decision thereupon shall be final.

108. Prohibition of second trial.—(1) Where a person subject to this Ordinance is acquitted or convicted of an offence on trial by a naval tribunal, a criminal court or a naval tribunal shall be debarred from trying him subsequently for the same offence.

(2) Where a person subject to this Ordinance is acquitted or convicted of any offence on trial by a criminal court, he shall not subsequently be tried under this Ordinance for the same offence; and no person so convicted shall, by reason of such conviction, be subjected to any loss or forfeiture of seniority or of rate, of privilege in respect of leave, or of pay or service (other than pay and service in respect of time spent in civil custody pending trial, or while attending his trial, or while serving any sentence of imprisonment, awarded by the criminal court):

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall affect the power to discharge any person from the naval service as a person whose services are no longer required.

Chapter XI.—PROCEDURE OF COURTS-MARTIAL

109. Objections.—(1) At all trials by courts-martial, as soon as the court is assembled, the names of the president and members shall be read over in the presence of the accused, who shall thereupon be asked whether he objects to being tried by any officer sitting on the court.

(2) If the accused objects to any such officer, his objection, and also the reply thereto of the officer objected to, shall be heard and recorded, and the remaining officers appointed as members of the court shall, in the absence of the challenged officer, decide on the objection.

(3) If objection is made in respect of the president, and allowed by one-half or more of the officers entitled to vote, the court shall adjourn until a new president is appointed by the convening authority.

(4) If the objection is made in respect of any member of the court other than the president and allowed as specified above, the member objected to shall retire, and his vacancy shall be filled by the first officer nominated as a spare member, under sub-section (2) of section 99 who is qualified to be and is not already a member of the court.
(5) When no objection is made, or objection made has been disallowed, or the place of every officer successfully objected to has been filled by another officer to whom no objection is made, or objection made is disallowed, the court shall proceed with the trial.

110. Administration of oath.—(1) An oath or affirmation in the prescribed form shall be administered in open court to every member of every court-martial and to the judge advocate, if any, before the com-for the purpose of instruction, and also to every shorthand writer or interpreter, if any.

(3) Every person giving evidence before a court-martial shall be examined after being duly sworn or affirmed in the prescribed form:
Provided that where a court-martial is satisfied that a child of tender years is unable to understand the nature of an oath or affirmation, it may dispense with the administration of oath or affirmation.

111. Voting by members.—(1) Every decision of a court-martial shall be passed by an absolute majority of votes; and where there is an equality of votes on either the finding or the sentence, the decision shall be in favour of the accused:
Provided that no sentence of death shall be passed without the concurrence, in the case of a general court-martial of at least two-thirds of the members, and in the case of a summary general court-martial of all the members of the court.

(2) In matters other than an objection under section 109 or a finding or a sentence, the president shall have a second or casting vote.

112. Power to convict of mitigated offence.—Where higher punishment for any offence under this Ordinance depends upon the intent with which or the circumstances in which the offender acts, and any person is charged with committing that offence with such intent or in such circumstances, he may be found guilty of committing that offence without such intent or circumstances and awarded lower punishment.

113. Power to convict of alternative offence.—(1) Where a person is charged with an offence under any provision of this Ordinance other than sections 78 and 79 but the offence is not proved, he may be found guilty of—

(b) an offence of the same class as the offence charged and not involving greater punishment.

(2) Where a person is charged with a civil offence under sections 78 and 79 but that offence is not proved, he may be found guilty and convicted of any other civil offence of which he could be found guilty and convicted by a criminal court in a trial for the same offence as he is charged with.
114. General rules as to evidence.—Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, the rules of evidence generally followed in criminal courts shall apply to proceedings before a court-martial.

115. Judicial notice.—A court-martial shall take judicial notice of any matter generally within the knowledge of its members as officers of the navy.

116. (2) In the case of a witness subject to service law the summons shall be sent to his commanding officer and such officer shall serve it upon him accordingly.

(3) In the case of any other witness, the summons may be served in such manner as may be prescribed or may be sent to the magistrate within whose jurisdiction he may be or resides and such magistrate shall cause service of the summons as if the witness were required to appear or produce the document or thing in his own court.

(4) When a witness is required to produce any particular document or thing the summons shall describe it with reasonable precision.

117. Commission for the examination of witnesses.—(1) Whenever, in the course of a trial by a court-martial, it appears to the court that the examination of a witness is necessary for the ends of justice, and that the attendance of such witness cannot be procured without an amount of delay, expense or inconvenience which, in the circumstances of the case, would be unreasonable, such court may, if it thinks necessary, issue a commission in the manner specified in Chapter XL of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), according as the witness resides in a place in or outside Pakistan.

The court may be adjourned for a specified time reasonably sufficient for the execution and return of the commission.

(3) Such a commission shall be executed by the magistrate or officer to whom it is issued in the same manner as if it was issued in the trial of a warrant case under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), or of any corresponding law in force at the place where the evidence is recorded; and shall be returned, together with the deposition of the witness examined thereunder to the Judge Advocate-General.

(4) The Judge Advocate-General will forward the same to the court-martial who issued it or, if the said court-martial is in the meanwhile, dissolved to another court-martial convened for the trial of the accused in respect of the same charge and any deposition so taken shall be recorded in evidence and shall form part of the proceedings of the court.

118. Presumption as to signature.—In any proceeding under this Ordinance, any application, certificate, warrant, reply or other document purporting to be signed by an officer in the service of the Government shall, on production, be presumed to have been duly signed by the person by whom and in the character in which it purports to have been signed, until the contrary is shown.

119. Enrolment paper.—(1) Any enrolment paper purporting to be signed by an enrolling officer shall, in any proceedings under this Ordinance, be evidence that the person enrolled gave the answer which he is therein represented to have given.

(2) The enrolment of such person may be proved by the production of the original or a copy of his enrolment paper purporting to be certified to be a true copy by the officer having the custody of the enrolment paper.

120. Presumption as to certain documents.—(1) Where any letter, return or other document with respect to a person,—

(i) having, or not having, at any time served in, or been dismissed or discharged from any part of the armed forces of Pakistan;

(ii) having, or not having, held any rank or appointment in, or been posted or transferred to any part of such forces, or having or not having served in any particular country or place; or

(iii) being, or not being, authorised to use or wear any military, naval or air force decoration, medal, medal ribbon, badge, wound stripe or emblem, the use or wearing of which by an unauthorised person is, by any law for the time being in force an offence, purports to have been signed by or on behalf of a Secretary to the Central Government, or by an officer of any of the headquarters of the armed forces or by the commanding officer or the officer having the custody of the records of any portion of those forces or of any ship or establishment of the Pakistan Navy to which such person appears or alleges to belong or to have belonged shall be evidence of the facts stated in such letter, return or other document.

(2) Any army, navy or air force list or gazette purporting to have been published by the competent authority shall be evidence of the status, rank and appointment of the officer or warrant officer and also of the unit or branch of the service to which he belongs according as it is shown in the list or gazette.

(3) Where a record made in any service book in pursuance of this Ordinance or of any rules made thereunder or otherwise in pursuance of duty purports to have been signed by the commanding officer or by the officer whose duty it is to make such record, such record shall be evidence of the facts therein stated.

(4) A copy of any record in any service book purporting to have been certified as a true copy by the officer having the custody of such book shall be evidence of such record.

(5) Where any person subject to this Ordinance is being tried on a charge of desertion or of absence without leave and such person has surrendered himself into the custody of, or has been apprehended by, any officer, or any portion, of the armed forces of Pakistan, a certificate purporting to be signed by such officer, or by the commanding officer of that portion of the armed forces and stating the fact, date and place of such surrender or apprehension, shall be evidence of the matters so stated.
(6) Where any person subject to this Ordinance is being tried on a charge of desertion or of absence without leave and such person has on arrest or surrender been taken to a police station in Pakistan, a certificate purporting to have been signed by the officer-in-charge of that police station, and stating the fact, date and place of such surrender or apprehension shall be evidence of the matters so stated.

(7) Any document purporting to be a report under the hand of any Chemical Examiner or Assistant Chemical Examiner to the Government upon any matter or thing duly submitted to him for examination or analysis and report may be used as evidence in any proceeding under this Ordinance.

(8) If it is proved that a person charged with an offence under this Ordinance has absconded and that there is no immediate prospect of arresting him, the commanding officer or other prescribed person may, in his absence, examine any persons who might appear to him to be acquainted with the case and record their depositions on oath and any such deposition may on the arrest of such person be used in evidence against him in any proceeding under this Ordinance, if the deponent is dead or incapable of giving evidence, or his attendance cannot be procured without an amount of delay, expense or inconvenience which under the circumstances of the case would be unreasonable.

121. Reference by accused to Government officer.—(1) If at any trial, or other proceedings for desertion or absence without leave, the accused states in his defence any sufficient or reasonable excuse for his unauthorised absence, and refers in support thereof to any officer in the service of the Government or if it appears that any such officer is likely to prove or disprove the said statement in the defence, the court or officer conducting the proceedings shall address such officer and adjourn the court or proceedings until his reply is received.

(2) The written reply of any officer so addressed shall, if signed by him, be received in evidence and have the same effect as if made on oath before the court or officer conducting the proceedings.

(3) If the court-martial is dissolved before receipt of such reply or if it omits to comply with the provisions of this section, the convening officer may, at his discretion, annul the proceedings and order a fresh trial by the same or another court-martial.

122. Evidence of previous convictions and general character.—(1) When any person subject to this Ordinance has been convicted by a court-martial of any offence, such court-martial may inquire into, and receive and record evidence of any previous conviction of such person, either by a court-martial held under this Ordinance or under any other enactment, or by a criminal court, or of any previous award of punishment under sections 102 and 103 (to such extent as may be prescribed), and may further inquire into and record the general character of such person, and such other matters as may be prescribed.

(2) Evidence received under this section may be either oral or in the shape of entries in, or certified extracts from service records; and it shall not be necessary to give notice before trial to the person tried that evidence as to his previous convictions or character will be received.
123. Lunacy of accused.—(1) Whenever, in the course of a trial by a court-martial, it appears to the court that the person charged is by reason or unsoundness of mind incapable of making his defence, or that he committed the act alleged but was by reason of unsoundness of mind incapable of knowing the nature of the act or knowing that it was wrong or contrary to law, the court shall record a finding accordingly.

(2) The president of the court shall forthwith report the case to the confirming officer.

(3) The confirming officer to whom a case is reported under sub-section (2) may, if he does not confirm the finding, take steps to have the accused person tried by the same or another court-martial for the offence with which he was charged.

(4) The confirming officer confirming a finding in any case so reported to him under sub-section (2) shall order the accused person to be kept in custody in the prescribed manner and shall report the case for the orders of the Central Government.

(5) On receipt of a report under sub-section (4) the Central Government may order the accused person to be detained in a lunatic asylum or other suitable place of safe custody.

124. Subsequent fitness of lunatic accused for trial.—Where any accused person, having been found by reason of unsoundness of mind to be incapable of making his defence, is in custody or under detention under section 123, the officer commanding the ship or naval establishment within the area of whose command the accused is in custody or is detained, or any other officer prescribed in this behalf, may—

(a) if such person is in custody under sub-section (4) of section 123, on the report of medical officer that he is capable of making his defence, or

(b) if such person is detained in a jail under sub-section (5) of section 123, on a certificate of the Inspector General of Prisons, and if such person is detained in a lunatic asylum under the said sub-section, on a certificate of any two or more of the visitors of such asylum that he is capable of making his defence, take steps to have such person tried by the same or another court-martial for the offence with which he was originally charged, or, if the offence is a civil offence, by a criminal court.

125. Transmission to Central Government of orders under section 124.—A copy of every order made by an officer under section 124 for the trial of the accused person shall forthwith be sent to the Central Government.

126. Release of lunatic accused.—Where any person is in custody under sub-section (4) of section 123, or under detention under sub-section (5) of that section—

(a) if such person is in custody under the said sub-section (4), on the report of a medical officer, or
(b) if such person is detained under the said sub-section (5), on a certificate from any of the authorities mentioned in clause (b) of section 124, that, in the judgment of such officer or authority such person may be released without danger of his doing injury to himself or to any other person, the Central Government may order that such person be released, or detained in custody, or transferred to a public lunatic asylum if he has not already been sent to such an asylum.

127. Delivery of lunatic accused to relatives.—Where any relative or friend of any person, who is in custody under sub-section (4) of section 123 or under detention under sub-section (5) of that section, desires that he should be delivered to his care and custody, the Central Government may, upon application by such relative or friend and on his giving security to the satisfaction of that Government that the person delivered shall—

(a) be properly taken care of and prevented from doing injury to himself or to any other person; and

(b) be produced for the inspection of such authority, and at such times and places, as the Central Government may direct, order such person to be delivered to such relative or friend.

128. Order for custody and disposal of property pending trial.—When any property regarding which any offence appears to have been committed, or which appears to have been used for the commission of any offence, is produced before a court-martial during a trial, the court may make such order as it thinks fit for the proper custody of such property pending the conclusion of the trial and, if the property is subject to speedy or natural decay, may, after recording such evidence as it thinks necessary, order it to be sold or otherwise disposed of.

129. Order for disposal of property regarding which offence is committed.—(1) After the conclusion of a trial before a court-martial, the court or the officer confirming the finding or sentence of such court-martial or any authority superior to such officer, may make such order as it or he thinks fit for the disposal by destruction, confiscation, delivery to any person claiming to be entitled to possession thereof or otherwise of any property or document produced before the court or in its custody, or regarding which any offence appears to have been committed or which has been used for the commission of any offence.

(2) Where any order has been made under sub-section (1) in respect of property regarding which an offence appears to have been committed, a copy of such order signed and certified by the authority making the same may, whether the trial was held within Pakistan or not, be sent to a magistrate in any district in which such property for the time being is, and such magistrate shall thereupon cause the order to be carried into effect as if it was an order passed by such magistrate under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898).

Explanation.—In this section the term “property” includes, in the case of property regarding which an offence appears to have been committed, not only such property as has been originally in the possession or under the control of any person, but also any property into or for which the same may have been converted or exchanged and anything acquired by such conversion or exchange whether immediately or otherwise.
Chapter XII.—CONFIRMATION, REVISION AND REVIEW

130. Confirmation of finding and sentence.—(1) At the conclusion of a trial by court-martial, the finding and the sentence, if any, of the court shall be signed by the president and the judge-advocate, if any, but they shall not be promulgated until they have been confirmed.

Provided that a sentence of imprisonment shall not be commuted to a sentence of detention for a term exceeding the term of imprisonment awarded by the court.

133. Power of confirming authority to return the finding and sentence to the court for revision.—(1) Any finding or sentence of a court-martial may be revised by it by order of the confirming authority but only once; and in the course of such revision, the court, if so directed by the confirming authority, may take additional evidence.

(2) Except for the unavoidable absence of any of its members, the court, sitting in revision, shall consist of the same members as were present at the time of arriving at the finding or passing the sentence.

(3) In the case of unavoidable absence of any of its members the cause whereof shall be duly recorded in the proceedings, the court shall proceed with the revision, unless the president himself is absent or the number of members present is less than the minimum required to constitute the court under section 99 in which case the court shall be dissolved and the accused may be tried by a court-martial constituted afresh.

136. Remedy of aggrieved persons, on being convicted by a court-martial.—Without prejudice to the provisions of the foregoing section, a person convicted under this Ordinance by a court-martial may at any time present a petition against the finding or the sentence or both to the Central Government or the Commander-in-Chief who may thereupon review the finding or the sentence or both.

137. Power to quash or alter findings.—(1) On review of a finding of a court-martial, the Central Government or the Commander-in-Chief may—

(a) in any case, quash the finding;

(b) where some other finding of guilty could lawfully have been made by the court before which the trial took place, and it appears to the Central Government or the Commander-in-Chief that that court must have been satisfied of facts necessary to justify that other finding, substitute that other finding.

(2) Where a finding is quashed under sub-section (1), then—

(a) if the sentence passed in respect of that finding relates to that finding only, the sentence shall be quashed;

(b) if the sentence relates to that finding and any other finding or findings, the Central Government or the Commander-in-Chief may substitute such sentence as is authorised by this Ordinance in respect of the other finding or findings.

(3) Where a finding is substituted under sub-section (1) the sentence may be substituted by any other sentence provided by this Ordinance in respect of the substituted finding.

   (a) all cases falling under Part I of the Schedule shall, save as otherwise provided, hereinafter be referred to conciliation under this Ordinance, and no civil or criminal court shall have jurisdiction to try any such case; and
   (b) any of the cases falling under Part II of the Schedule may be so referred if all the parties thereto agree to such a reference.

(2) The following cases relating to matters falling under Section B of Part I of the Schedule or under Section B of Part II thereof shall be excluded from conciliation, namely:—
   (a) cases in which the interest of a minor is involved;
   (b) cases where provision for arbitration has been made in a contract between the parties;
   (c) cases by or against the Central or a Provincial Government or a public corporation or a public servant acting in the discharge of his duty;

(3) Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, add to the Schedule any class of cases relating to such disputes between private parties as are of a local nature and are capable of settlement by compromise.

(4) Nothing in this section shall apply to cases relating to an offence specified in the Schedule if the accused had previously been convicted of a cognizable offence.

4. Application for constitution of a Conciliation Court.—(1) Where a case is, under this Ordinance, referable to conciliation, any party to the dispute may, in the prescribed manner, and on payment of the prescribed fee, apply to the Chairman of the Union Council concerned for the constitution of a Conciliation Court for the settlement of the dispute, and unless the Chairman, for reasons to be recorded in writing, rejects the application, he shall proceed to constitute, in the prescribed manner, a Conciliation Court for the purpose:

Provided that no application under this section shall be made against a person of unsound mind.

(2) Any person aggrieved by an order of rejection under sub-section (1) may, on the ground that the order is mala fide or substantially unjust, prefer, in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed time, an application for revision to the Controlling Authority, or to such other authority as may be prescribed.

5. Conciliation Courts, their composition, etc.—(1) A Conciliation Court shall be a body consisting of a Chairman and two representatives to be nominated, in the prescribed manner, by each of the parties to the dispute:
Provided that one of the two representatives so nominated shall be a member of the Union Council concerned.

(2) The Chairman of the Union Council shall be the Chairman of the Conciliation Court, but where he is, owing to illness or any other cause, unable to act as Chairman, or does not, on account of any personal consideration, wish to do so, or his impartiality is challenged by any party to the dispute, any other person appointed in the prescribed manner, not being a person nominated by any party, shall be the Chairman of the Court.

(3) If either party to the dispute consists of more than one person, the Chairman shall call upon the persons constituting that party to nominate the two representatives on its behalf, and if they fail so to nominate, shall authorize any one of such persons to do so, and thereupon the person so authorized shall alone have the right to nominate such representatives.

(4) Where representatives required under this section to be nominated are not nominated within the prescribed time, then,—

(a) if the case falls under Part I of the Schedule, the Conciliation Court shall, without such representatives, be deemed to have been validly constituted for the purposes of this Ordinance, and conciliation shall proceed accordingly; and

(b) if the case falls under Part II of the Schedule, the Chairman shall issue a certificate that conciliation has failed.

6. Jurisdiction of Conciliation Courts, etc.—(1) Subject to the provision of sub-section (2), a Conciliation Court shall be constituted and shall have jurisdiction to try a case only when the parties to the dispute ordinarily reside within the limits of the Union in which the offence has been committed or the cause of action has arisen.

(2) In the case of Union Committees, where one of the parties to a dispute ordinarily resides, and the offence has been committed or the cause of action has arisen, within the jurisdiction of one Union Committee, and the other party ordinarily resides within the jurisdiction of another Union Committee, then, a Conciliation Court may be constituted in the Union in which the offence has been committed, or, as the case may be, the cause of action has arisen, but each party shall have the right to nominate, if it so chooses, its representatives from its own Union.

7. Power of Conciliation Courts to award compensation.—(1) Save as otherwise provided in this Ordinance, a Conciliation Court shall have no power to pass a sentence of imprisonment or fine, but if it holds a person guilty of an offence specified in the Schedule, it may order the accused to pay to the aggrieved person compensation the amount of which may not exceed two hundred and fifty rupees, but if the offence is one punishable under section 428 or section 429 of the Pakistan Penal Code (Act XLV of 1860), the amount of compensation may exceed two hundred and fifty rupees but not five hundred rupees.

(2) In a case relating to a matter falling under Section B of Part I of the Schedule or under Section B of Part II thereof, the Conciliation Court shall have the power to order payment of money up to the amount specified therein in respect of such matter or delivery of property to the person entitled thereto.
8. Finality of the decisions of Conciliation Courts.—(1) Where in a case referred to conciliation under this Ordinance the decision of the Conciliation Court is unanimous, or, if the case falls under Part I of the Schedule, the decision is by a majority of four to one, the decision shall be binding on the parties and shall be enforceable in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) If the decision of a Conciliation Court is by a majority of three to two, and the case falls under Part I of the Schedule, any party may, within thirty days of the decision, apply, in the prescribed manner,—

(a) to the Controlling Authority, if the case relates to a matter falling under Section A of that Part, or

(b) to the District Judge, if the case relates to a matter falling under Section B thereof, and the Controlling Authority or the District Judge, as the case may be, if satisfied that there has been a failure of justice, may set aside or modify the decision, or direct that the dispute be referred back to the Conciliation Court for reconsideration.

(3) If the decision of a Conciliation Court is not unanimous, and the case falls under Part II of the Schedule, the Court shall issue a certificate that conciliation has failed.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in any law any matter decided by a Conciliation Court in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance shall not be tried in any court, including a Conciliation Court.

9. Enforcement of decree.—(1) Where a Conciliation Court decides to award compensation to a person or to order the delivery of property, it shall pass a decree in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed, and shall enter the particulars thereof in the prescribed register.

If any money is paid or any property is delivered in the presence of the Conciliation Court in satisfaction of the decree, it shall enter the fact of payment or delivery, as the case may be, in the aforesaid register.

Where a decree relates to payment of compensation and the decretal amount is not paid within the prescribed time, the same shall, if the Chairman of the Conciliation Court so directs, be recovered as arrears of land revenue, and, on recovery, shall be paid to the decree holder.

(4) Where the satisfaction of a decree can be had otherwise than by payment of compensation, the decree may be presented for execution to such civil court as the District Judge may, by special or general order, direct, and such court shall thereupon proceed to execute the decree as if it were a decree passed by itself.

(5) A Conciliation Court may, if it thinks fit, direct that the amount of compensation be paid in such instalments as it may fix.

10. Procedure on failure of conciliation.—Where a certificate is issued that conciliation has failed, either under clause (b) of sub-section (4) of section 5 or under sub-section (3) of section 8, any party to the dispute may seek its remedy in the court in which it would in law be entitled to seek such remedy if this Ordinance had not been promulgated.
11. Power of Conciliation Courts to summon witnesses, etc.—(1) A Conciliation Court may issue summons to any person to appear and give evidence, or to produce or cause the production of any document:

Provided that—

(a) no person who is exempt from personal appearance in court under sub-section (1) of section 133 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908), shall be required to appear in person;

(b) a Conciliation Court may refuse to summon a witness or to enforce a summons already issued against a witness when in the opinion of the Court the attendance of the witness cannot be procured without such delay, expense or inconvenience as in the circumstances would be unreasonable;

(c) a Conciliation Court shall not require any person living beyond its jurisdiction to give evidence or to produce or cause the production of a document unless such sum of money is deposited for payment to him as the Court would think sufficient for defraying his travelling and other expenses.

(2) If any person to whom a Conciliation Court has issued summons to appear and give evidence or to produce or cause the production of any document before it wilfully disobeys such summons, the Conciliation Court may take cognizance of such disobedience, and, after giving such person an opportunity to explain, sentence him to a fine not exceeding twenty-five rupees.

12. Contempt of Conciliation Courts.—A person shall be guilty of contempt of a Conciliation Court if he, without lawful excuse,—

(a) offers any insult to the Conciliation Court or any member thereof while the Court is functioning as such; or

(b) causes any interruption in the work of the Conciliation Court; or

(c) fails to produce or deliver a document when ordered by the Conciliation Court to do so; or

(d) refuses to answer any question of the Conciliation Court which he is bound to answer; or

(e) refuses to take oath to state the truth or to sign any statement made by him when required by the Conciliation Court to do so;

and the Conciliation Court may, without any complaint having been made to it, forthwith try such person for such contempt and sentence him to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

13. Recovery of fine.—(1) Where a Conciliation Court imposes a fine under section 11 or section 12 and such fine is not immediately paid, it shall record an order stating the amount of fine imposed and the fact that it has not been paid, and shall forward the same to the nearest Magistrate who shall proceed to recover it in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), as if it were a fine imposed by himself, and such Magistrate may also sentence the accused to imprisonment in default of payment of such fine.
(2) All fines paid to a Conciliation Court under sections 11 and 12, or collected on behalf of a Conciliation Court under this section, shall form part of the funds of the Union Council concerned.

14. Limitation, etc., in certain cases.—Where a case relating to a matter falling under Section B of Part II of the Schedule is referred to conciliation and conciliation fails, and the case is subsequently taken to a civil court, in computing the period of limitation prescribed therefor by or under any law for the time being in force, the time spent on conciliation proceedings, commencing from the date of the application made under section 4 and ending on the day the certificate of failure of conciliation is issued, shall, notwithstanding anything in the Limitation Act, 1908 (IX of 1908), be excluded.

15. Procedure.—(1) Save as otherwise expressly provided by or under this Ordinance, the provisions of the Evidence Act, 1872 (1 of 1872), the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), and of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908), shall not apply to proceedings before any Conciliation Court.

(2) Sections 8 to 11 of the Oaths Act, 1873 (X of 1873), shall apply to all proceedings before Conciliation Courts.

16. No appearance through counsel.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Legal Practitioners Act, 1879 (XVII of 1879), no legal practitioner shall be permitted to appear on behalf of any party to a dispute before any Conciliation Court or before any Controlling Authority or other authority exercising powers under this Ordinance.

(2) If a person required under this Ordinance to appear before a Conciliation Court is a purdahashin lady, the Conciliation Court may permit her to be represented by a duly authorized agent who shall in no case be a paid agent.

17. Transfer of certain cases.—(1) Where the Controlling Authority is of the opinion that the circumstances of a case relating to a matter falling under Section A of Part I of the Schedule or under Section A of Part II thereof and pending before a Conciliation Court are such that the public interest and the ends of justice demand its trial in a criminal court, the said Authority may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Ordinance, withdraw the same from the Conciliation Court and direct that it be referred to the criminal court for trial and disposal.

(2) A Conciliation Court may, if it is of the opinion that in a case relating to a matter as aforesaid and pending before it the ends of justice demand a punishment for the accused, forward the case to the criminal court for trial and disposal.

18. Investigation by police.—Nothing in this Ordinance shall prevent the police from investigating a cognizable case by reason of the fact that the case relates to an offence specified in Section A of Part I of the Schedule, but if any such case is taken to a criminal court, such court may, if it thinks fit, direct that it be referred to conciliation under this Ordinance.
19. Pending cases.—This Ordinance shall not apply to cases referable under this Ordinance to conciliation which, immediately before the coming into force of this Ordinance, are pending in any civil or criminal court, and such cases shall be disposed of by those courts as if this Ordinance had not been promulgated:

Provided that if all the parties to any such case agree to have the same decided by a Conciliation Court, the proceedings thereof shall terminate, and the case shall be referred to conciliation in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

20. Power to exempt.—Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, exempt any area or areas, or any case or class of cases, or any community from the operation of all or any of the provisions of this Ordinance.
